This Week's Spotlight

8th graders took a field trip to Highland Prep for a bbq, games and a tour to see what it is all about!

Teacher of the Week

I nominate Samantha Frost. Mrs. Frost is always smiling and willing to help wherever she can. Her dedication to students is obvious and she cares deeply about their education and giving students the best opportunity to learn and grow. She is always looking for new ways to reach her kids and to get them excited to learn. I know I can go to her to get inspired on new ways to teach my students. She always has ideas and is willing to help me grow as an educator. Thank you Mrs. Frost

Staff of the Week

I nominate Linda Silbor . Linda has recently joined our staff and is a hard worker as well as an amazing person, and co-worker. She does a fantastic job helping to run our After Care Program and is always willing to help out her fellow co-workers when and wherever she is needed. We are so glad you are here at Calibre Linda! Thank you for all you do!

News from the Office

We looking forward to the ethnic feast on Friday, December 21. A flyer went home all about it. This week Mrs. Kaplan would like to share a recipe from her ethnicity.

Potato Latke (pancake)

"A classic potato latke, you can't go wrong with these crispy hot cakes. Serve with applesauce, sour cream and chopped green onions! Happy Hanukkah!"

Ingredients

Original recipe yields 6 servings (10 to 12 latkes)

2 cups peeled and shredded potatoes

1 tablespoon grated onion

3 eggs, beaten

2 tablespoons all-purpose flour

1 1/2 teaspoons salt

1/2 cup peanut oil for frying

Directions

Place the potatoes in a cheesecloth and wring, extracting as much moisture as possible.

In a medium bowl stir the potatoes, onion, eggs, flour and salt together.

In a large heavy-bottomed skillet over medium-high heat, heat the oil until hot. Place large spoonfuls of the potato mixture into the hot oil, pressing down on them to form 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick patties. Brown on one side, turn and brown on the other. Let drain on paper towels. Serve hot!
