This Week's Spotlight

Book Fair is this week, Wednesday thru Friday come check it out!

Teacher of the Week

I nominate Brittany Kaiser. Brittany is our amazing middle school History teacher. She truly brings History to life with her innovative lessons and approach to her students. Additionally, Brittany is always, and I mean always willing to help. She, along with Nicole, run our school's student council, she is an amazing asset to our middle school team/ Calibre family, she is a lively competitor in school programs AND she has an awesome sense of humor. All this combines to make life very fun on the North end.

Staff of the Week

I nominate Anita Pirouti for staff of the week. Anita is very kind and has a smile on her face. We all know that she is busy but with any question or need, she is always there. I have a lot of respect for Anita for what she has been through this last year, she has kept her head up and is such a strong lady. Anita, it is good to have you with us!
