This Week's Spotlight

Art, Mrs. Marciniak

Hello Calibre Families! I am Stephanie Marciniak your student's art teacher. I say this every year, "Wow, this year has just flown by!". I can't believe all the amazing work my students have produced this year in and out of class. I see so many Art Journals and Sketchbooks of student's art-work and it makes my heart swell.

It's also that time of the year that your students are working hard on producing original art for our Annual Art Show. This year it will be in the Cafeteria during the Spring Fair. Please stop by on April 26th and see just how talented Calibre Students are. You may also purchase your student's art framed, ready to be displayed in your home. This fundraiser helps support our art program. Order forms to purchase frames are in the front office with a sample of the frame you will receive with your child's artwork displayed.

*framed artwork was created by Sarah Ingram, 8th gr, Watercolor Koi Fish

Teacher of the Week

I nominate Brenda Rubin as teacher of the week. Mrs. Rubin is always smiling and willing to help wherever she can. Her dedication to students is obvious and she cares deeply about their education and giving students the best opportunity to learn and grow. Thank you Mrs. Rubin for all that you do!

Staff of the Week

I nominate Cindy for staff of the week. She is willing to help when she is needed and will do it with a smile. It's a pleasure to work with you. Thank you for all you do.

News from the Office

The Mother/Son event is coming up. We will have a video game truck here that will have Xbox 360, Xbox One, Wii and Wii U. It will be equipped with seat rumblers, LED lights, lasers and disco balls. The cost is $15 per mom/son and $5 for each additional son. This cost includes games and picture. You must RSVP by April 10, we cannot take RSVP's after this date and also cannot allow walk ups. Right now, we do not even have 25 and we need at least 50 RSVPs to make this event happen!

KEEP CALM

Help your child develop coping skills

Imagine your mind uncluttered, happy and free, loving whatever you are doing to the point that you lose track of time, limitations and stressors. Psychologists refer to this frame of mind as flow. Many scientists believe children operate in a naturally flowing mindset up to about age 5. You can, however, regain your mental flow at any age and teach your children to nurture (and keep) theirs! This helps them develop coping skills that will empower them for life, increasing the "ups," decreasing the "downs" and making joy a part of every day.

Research indicates coping has to do with how you manage your mental and physical energy. The goal is to find balance. Your mind flows when sparked by high-quality energy and personal motivation. The two go hand-in-hand. There are several things you can do to help your child find their flow:

Encourage Positivity

Positive energy attracts positive action. Helping your child grow a happy mind begins with being open to the positive things in life, and there's no better way to start than to make yourself a model. Life is full of beauty, love and excitement.

Self-Awareness

As parents, we can help our children become more aware of who they are and to discover their unique qualities. Self-awareness is about being attentive to who you have been in the past, who you are now and who you want to be in the future.

Helpful Habits

Help your child develop these habits, so they can find balance throughout their day (and life):

1. Incorporate a morning activity that launches you into a flowing mindset.

Sing, dance or take a walk outside.

2. Balance your energy before and after daily activities.

Pick two songs from your favorite collection, one that motivates you and another that calms you. Put them on your phone. Decide what kind of energy you need to feel (motivating or calming) for balance in the morning before you leave home, at lunchtime and again when you get home.

3. Get organized at night.

Remind your child how important preparation is in preventing chaos. They'll wake up happier knowing they have all of the items needed for a successful day.

4. Prioritize sleep.

Make it a habit to turn lights off at the same time each night. Kids need sleep for higher-level thinking and to maintain balance.

5. Each day, do something nice for someone.

Think about who you will help, compliment or surprise. Then do it!

CALIBRE ACADEMY'S ANNUAL ART SHOW

FRIDAY, APRIL 26TH 5PM-7PM

STUDENT ARTWORK WILL BE DISPLAYED IN THE CAFETERIA DURING THE SPRING FAIR

ART FUNDRAISER

Please come and see the amazing artistic talent we have here at Calibre Academy. This year you will have the opportunity to purchase a framed 8x10 piece of your child's artwork. Profits are used to improve your child's experience in Art by providing different art mediums such as oil pastels, charcoal, and paint to name a few.

DID YOU MISS THE PREORDER DEADLINE??

NO WORRIES 😊

You can still order your child's artwork to be framed for $15.00. Now until Thursday, April 25th you can send in your order with cash / check or pay with a debit card in the front office. Any orders for frames purchased at the Festival will be $15.00 cash only. These orders will be delivered to classrooms at a later date.

Please print the following information and attach your payment, thank you for your continued support.
